CREATNET LEARNING & LEADERSHIP

---

Creatnet Learning and Leadership practice has grown from strength to strength over the years. It has benefited a large number of managers, principals, entrepreneurs, teachers and youth in consciously seeding and developing into lifelong learners.

The research and practice of group learning is a pioneering contribution in the domain of learning and leadership which leads to the practice of building conscious learning communities in schools. This has immensely benefited the school management, school community and most importantly the students.

YOUNG LEADERS PROGRAM

Through the Young Leaders Program, we aim to prepare students to become self-driven lifelong learners and take responsibility for their actions. With the unique amalgamation of assessments, activities and reflective questions; a facilitator works with a small group of students to synthesize their learning. A facilitator here acts as a “guide by the side”, not a “sage on the stage”. Students get the opportunity to learn from their peers in a group setting and get to practice action, reflection and silence in everyday life. In this process, they become internally anchored and externally open for any given circumstance in their lives.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVE

To enable the students to become creative, conscious, life long learners wherein they innovate, adapt to the challenges and become leaders of tomorrow.

THE CREATNET WAY

The Creatnet way has emerged through a continuous, conscious practice of enabling learning for leaders in business and education. It integrates leadership and learning – inside and outside. It is a journey experienced as a progressive growth in creation, connection, and self-awareness. It operates at the level of individual, collective, and systems. There are three interrelated elements in the Creatnet way:

PROGRAM STRUCTURE

- Group learning facilitation through 15 weeks
- 15 sessions - each session 2 hrs
- Learning happens online/offline, in groups of 20

04

Meta Frameworks

The Meta Frameworks enable thinking about thinking. Through a portal of questions that offers an inquiry, one creates knowledge by inquiring in context and making connections.

Group Learning

All programs and sessions are designed to be facilitated in small groups. Participants can listen to each other, experience different perspectives, and learn from context that is not their own.

Facilitators

Our facilitators are practitioners who practice what they enable. They provide the listening and manage the learning process. They offer belief and intention which in turn provides the environment for creation and connection to enable learning.

TOOLS WE USE TO FACILITATE

- Experiential activities
- Personal project based learning
- Evidence-based assessments
- Reflective Questions
- Mindfulness practices
